Foreword

....a kaleidoscope of activities and people and places and memories and endless planning meetings and conferences and decorations and the inevitable stumping questions of the quiz masters a kaleidoscope of colorful ingredients and personalities bits and traces of memories and half-forgotten names of acquaintances at rallies across the club room or seated nearby or cheering at a quiz or playing hard but not hard enough in the class sessions shifting shining changing teenagers who leave and come and go and kids you never meet and some you'll never forget

this is youth for christ perhaps only a part of it things we remember and treasure and at times ignore and formals and dinner jackets and candles and food and people always rehearsing for something and someone's new car and class rings and fads and the date that fell through and the skit that flopped and not enough time for anything especially sleep and the constant battle with grades and the almost failure and the honor roll a time for laughs but always time for a good old-fashioned prayer meeting we came in new to it all and expressed our thoughts and our ideas and saw them shattered upon the reality of christ's image changed into the pattern of his love his compassion and his dedication

we have been willing to be crushed jade to be ground glass or even brushed aside so that as paul we might win some

Dedication

Like sparkling rays of light from a priceless gem comes the prayers and love of a mother's heart. Upon each of them comes the challenge of a Kaleidoscope of demands and interest. And with each challenge a need is met for everyone of us.

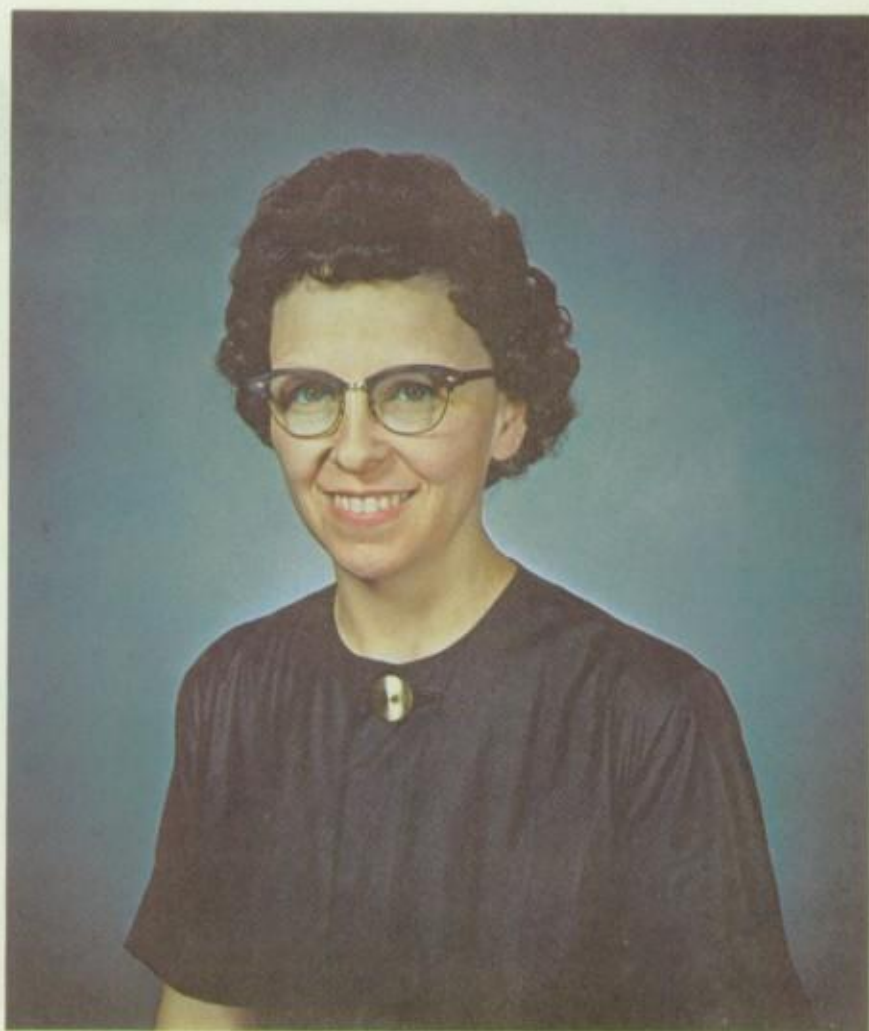

As teen-agers we have known the over-powering pull of their royal love; sensed the tenderness of their affection; blushed at the evidence of their pride; shuddered at the impact of their seldom given discipline...only to see it erased once again by a seeming failure of frustration in meeting our demands. They have skimmed and saved to purchase that too expensive formal for the Spring Banquet; prayed with mingled emotion as we took our driving test..and passed; gave encouragement as we practiced our trumpet hours upon hours for the talent contest; cried softly as we marched across the platform at graduation to receive our diploma. This is mother. Without her, high school wouldn't be the same.

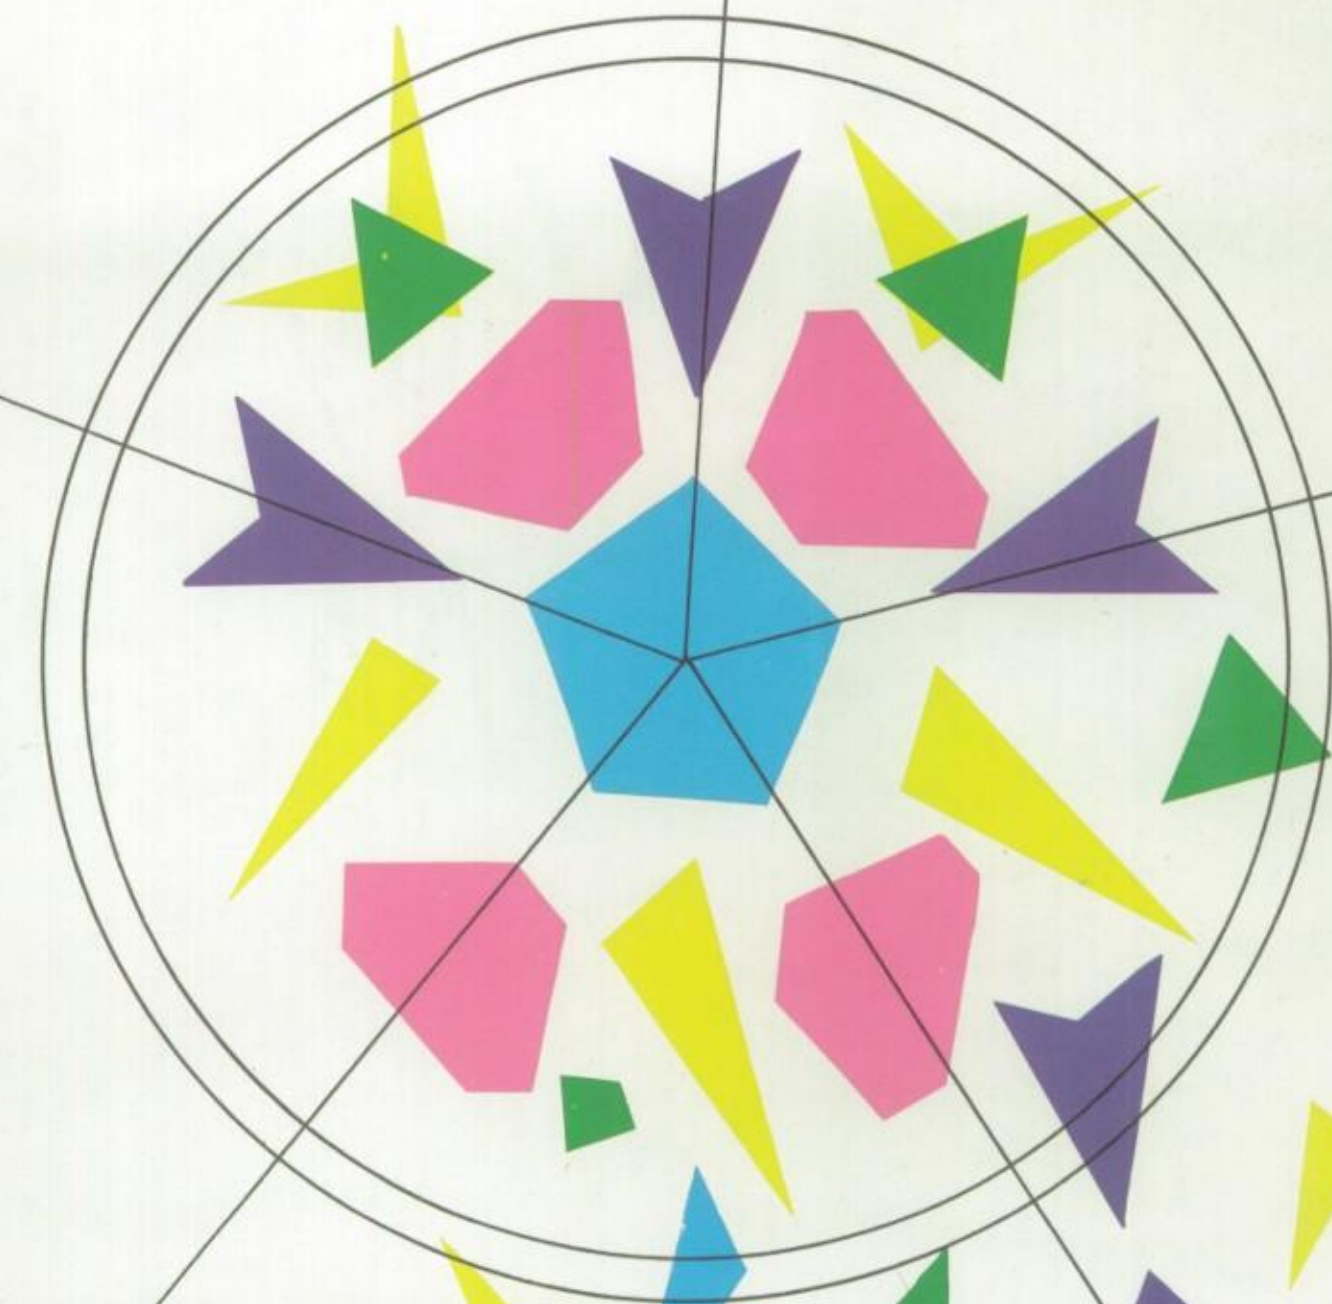

Thus we have chosen two mothers...equal in their dedication to Christ and their children. To Vidy Metsker for eighteen years of marriage to Youth for Christ through its trouble and its triumphs; to Leona Hocklander for eight years of service in the daily giving of her time in the office to win Youth for Christ. To both of these...and to the thousands they represent...we humbly dedicate this Kaleidoscope of memories...the 1962 CONQUEROR.

Leadership

Director

Truly a kaleidoscope of activities has marked the ministry these past nineteen years of Al Metsker's life. Although his title is that of Executive Director, Al constantly makes time to spend with the teenagers. They know that in this man of God they have an able advisor and close friend. The 21 members of his staff know that he is one who is deeply concerned about every phase of their personal life; always an encouraging word, always a warm smile. The warmth of his radio ministry has been enjoyed by many throughout the Mid-West area. The influence of Kansas City Youth for Christ is due in its largest proportion to this man who knows that he has received his orders from God.

Al Metsker

Leonard Rodgers

This spring marks the third year for Leonard Rodgers on the Youth for Christ staff. Under Leonard's capable leadership the Junior High department of the club staff has grown from bits of glass into a set pattern of success. Leonard, who received the Junior High club director's award from Youth for Christ International, has not been content to rest upon past laurels but has worked hard to make his clubs effective for God. Because of this added effort Leonard is now recognized as one of the experts in the field of Junior High club development.

Club

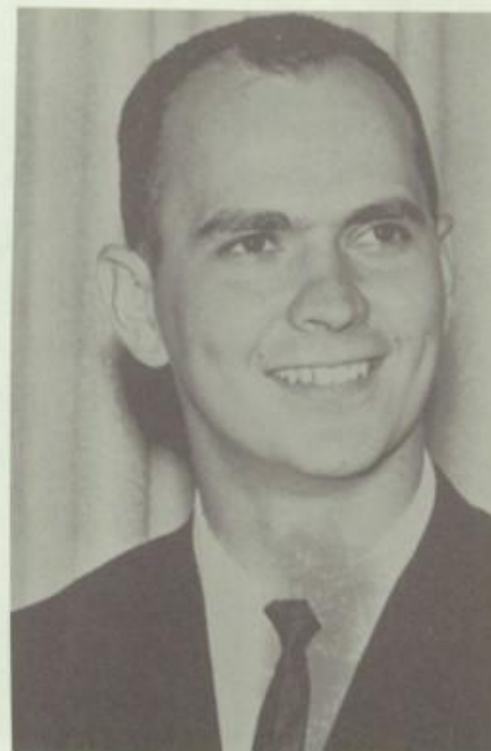

Dick Hatfield

An experiment was tried this year....and proved successful. And to Dick Hatfield, Senior high director, goes much of the credit. This product of Kansas City took full responsibility of the twenty-seven Senior high clubs. The first semester seventeen volunteer college men worked under his direction. Three men were then selected to continue their club leadership on a part-time basis. It was at this time that the new "Target Club" program was launched by Dick and his assistants. Even the book now being read is a tribute to Dick's ability to lead teen-agers as well as men. Without a doubt this has been one of the most fruitful and building years because of this man's determination and dedication to Christ and His teens.

Bob Palmer

A native son returned to Kansas City this year to direct the music department. Bob Palmer is his name. Bob, who served in Toledo, Ohio as a club director, came back to town to add a bit of color to the music department and to assist in Senior High clubs. His likeable personality has not only gained him old acquaintances but also many new friends. The future ministry of Youth for Christ music has been brightened by the efforts and standards of this young man.

Directors

Bill Boerop

The teen-agers in Kansas City had a unique experience when Bill Boerop came from Europe for further training in the field of youth evangelism. After several months this Dutchman with his unusual personality, was faced with the task of directing five clubs. Bill met the situation head-on and found the answers to many problems that had confronted him in Europe. This school year, which Bill and his family spent here, will long be remembered by all for its trials and its triumphs in winning teen-agers to Christ.

Albert Lane

Eleven years ago a gentleman came to Kansas City and stayed. The hearts of teenagers and adults alike have been enriched because of K. C.'s "Mr. Music." Albert Lane has often been referred to as the keeper of the eighty eight. For across those eighty eight keys night after night, week after week, and year after year, have flown fingers and a heart dedicated to the glory of God. His music is different. His music is contemporary in its approach, but through every note Jesus Christ is exalted. His musical counsel to teenagers has started many on the road to success. His reverant reading of the Word of God for the Youth for Christ Hour has sent many teens off to school with a realization that all things are possible with God.

Jack Cousins

Everyone's friend; that is Jack Cousins. In this man is mirrored the self-lessness of the Christ whom he serves. The teenagers in Kansas City know that it is Jack Cousins who makes many of the arrangements for the speakers and special talent which appear in our rally week after week. This friend of the pastor gives tirelessly of himself in setting up evangelistic meetings, Bible conferences, and film showings. God has given in the past and will give in the future much blessing to this man who goes out of his way to promote others.

Leona Hocklander

One of the largest tasks which challenges Leona Hocklander, is that of bookkeeping. The multiplicity of jobs which surround this responsibility are handled efficiently and carefully day after day. Thousands of names and facts, after forgotten by other staff members, are remembered by Leona. The accomplishments built up through eight years of association make Leona a valued member of the staff.

Joe Jeffers

An unprecedented award came to Kansas City YFC - mainly due to the tireless efforts of Joe Jeffers. This award was presented by Youth for Christ International for excellence in rally promotion - which includes the Conquest and Conqueror, plus rally publicity - all of which are printed by Joe in our print shop. To many this is just a job. But to Joe, printing is a ministry. It is this attitude that produces "award winning" results everytime.

Fern Richert

Completing her first year on the staff is Fern Richert. Although her basic title is receptionist, Fern also operates the Book Store and Film Library. Dedication to the job often finds Fern "burning the midnight oil" to make sure that the "books" and orders are to everyone's satisfaction. The challenge of 300 films was met with a smile and renewed determination to make her ministry count.

Marge Palmer

Another product of Kansas City Youth for Christ joined the full-time staff this year. Marge Palmer, since her high school days has always wanted to work on the Youth for Christ staff. In January this dream became a reality. Although Marge is a 9 to 5 gal, you'll often find her in the office long after the others are gone. Her willingness to do the little "extra" things is greatly appreciated by the rest of the staff.

Board of Directors

Once a month the Board meets to discuss current programs.....

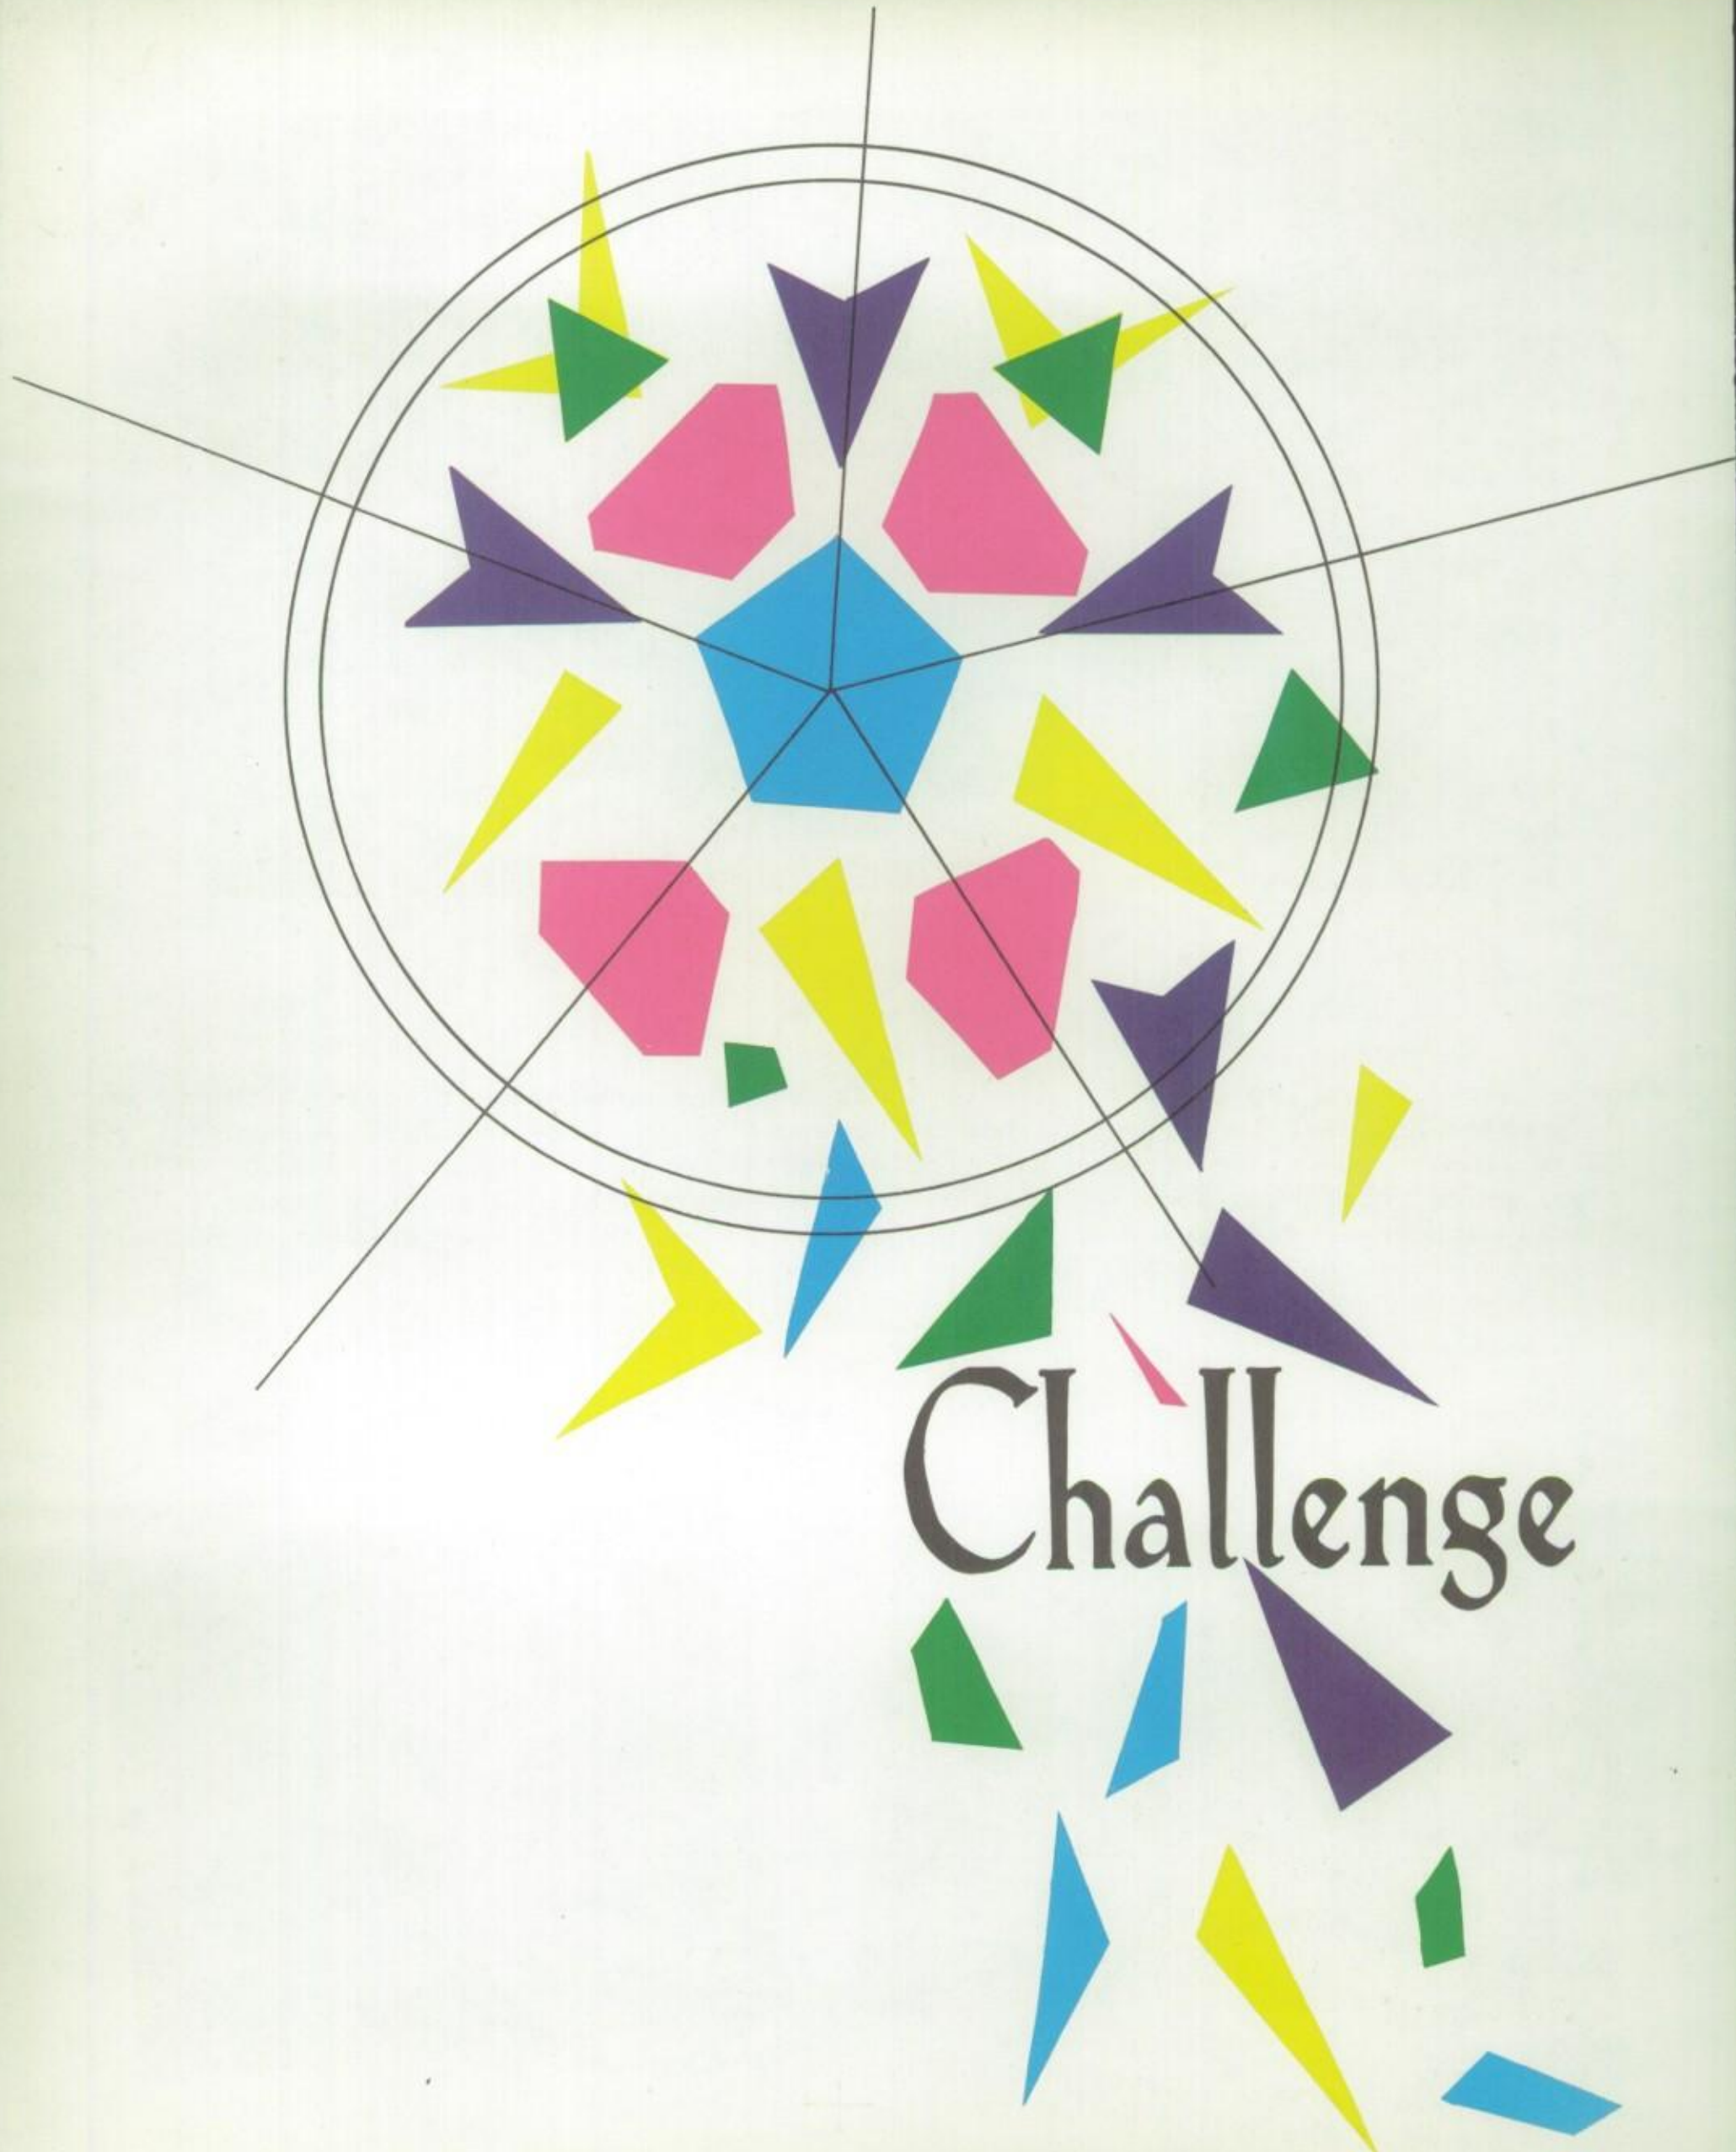

For eighteen years the Board of Directors has had only one interest - the teenagers of the greater Kansas City area. Although these twelve men are employed in deversified fields, their goals are common and their decisions important. The growth of the organization continues because of their vision and faith. Without a doubt God is pleased with their dedication and determination to see that every teenager throughout this area hears the gospel and learns to walk with Christ.

or you may find them at a yearbook "signing party".....or preparing steaks at the Spring Banquet.....

or even changing a tire on one of the busses.

Activities

City Council

Before any new plan or program takes shape, the respective officers of each club meet to discuss its workability. Through the mouth of the City Council new ideas are proffered and executed....
.....some mercilessly and some miraculously accepted. This group is no "rubber stamp." However, the maturity shown in their enthusiasm and faith in attempting the untried is often far beyond their teen-age years.

Westport "Tigers" scored impressively for the runner-up spot

The championship team from Ruskin consisted of Jerrie Pierson, Virginia Jacoby, Richard Taylor, Bonnie Figgins, Jennalee Smith, and Ginger Wilson.

1962 Champions

With a new emphasis on championship study, the quiz program came through with flying colors. In raising the standard on accepted answers, a new interest and determination became evident on the part of every quizzier. In each of the three leagues, victories became harder to achieve. Every quiz seemed to increase the effectiveness of the teams. In only one league was a team able to get through the season undefeated....and they were eliminated in the semi-finals of the city championship quizzes. The three remaining teams fought it out with Ruskin capturing the trophy.

Jr. High All-Stars

The all-stars in the Junior High division took second place honors at the Kansas State play-offs in Wichita. Displaying their trophy are Carla Bingham, Joan Pressler, Connie Young, Eunice Powell, Susie Robbins, David Young, and Rolly Richert.

Talent

Every spring teenagers throughout the area compete for top honors in the fields of their choice. It is through the Talent Contests that many teens get their first taste of appearing before a large audience. Rally Snaps

Every Saturday night hundreds of teens and scores of adults attend the Youth for Christ rally. It is here that the club week reaches its best with the nations best in music and gospel preaching. Following every rally an old fashioned gospel invitation is given and many clubbers bring their friends to the prayer room where the plan of salvation is made plain. This is the genius of the Youth for Christ ministry.

Eighteen years at the helm of K.C.'s rally.

Prayer time: a local pastor prays for YFC servicemen around the globe.

Arnie Hartman: ten Popular hymns

Wyandotte cheerleaders spotlight the evening.

Halloween with the Harmonaires

It could only be Redd Harper.

Testimony time: Christ can change the heart and life.

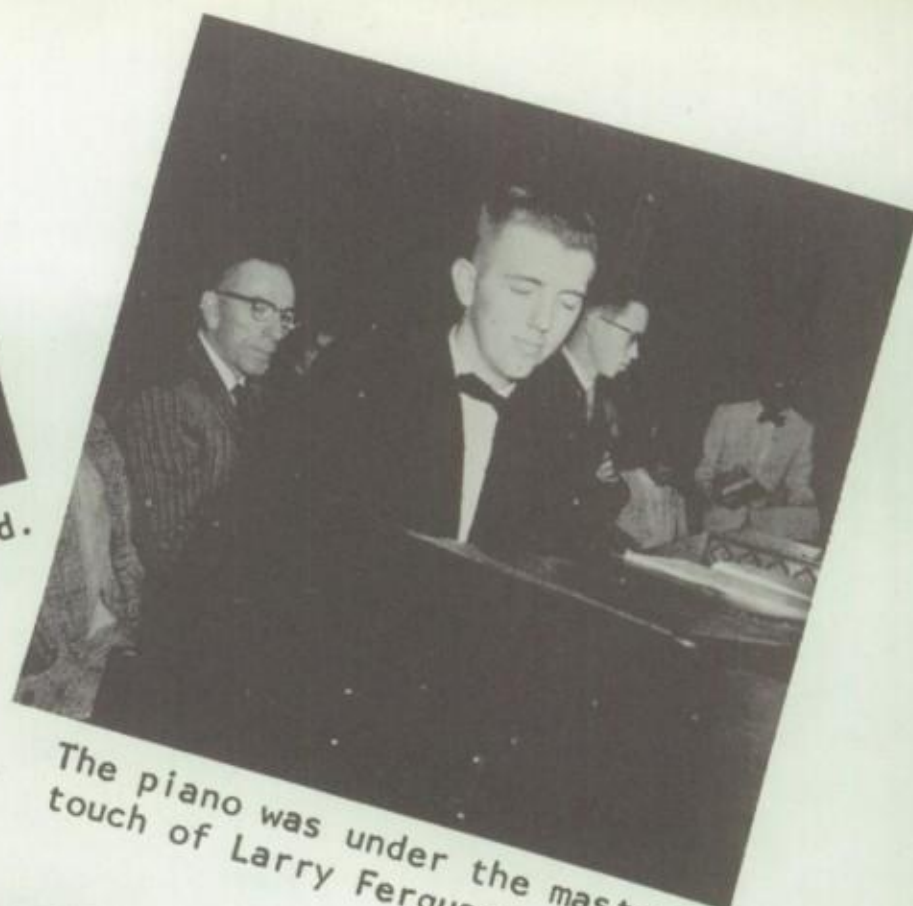

Dr. Bob Cook is welcomed to K.C. rally.

An after rally snack at Roy and Ray

Bob Rist presented his southern ballad.

The piano was under the masterful touch of Larry Ferguson.

Even the coachmen listened attentively to Southwest's Phyllis Clay.

Senior High Spectacular

The Queen Candidates are introduced by Dick Hatfield.

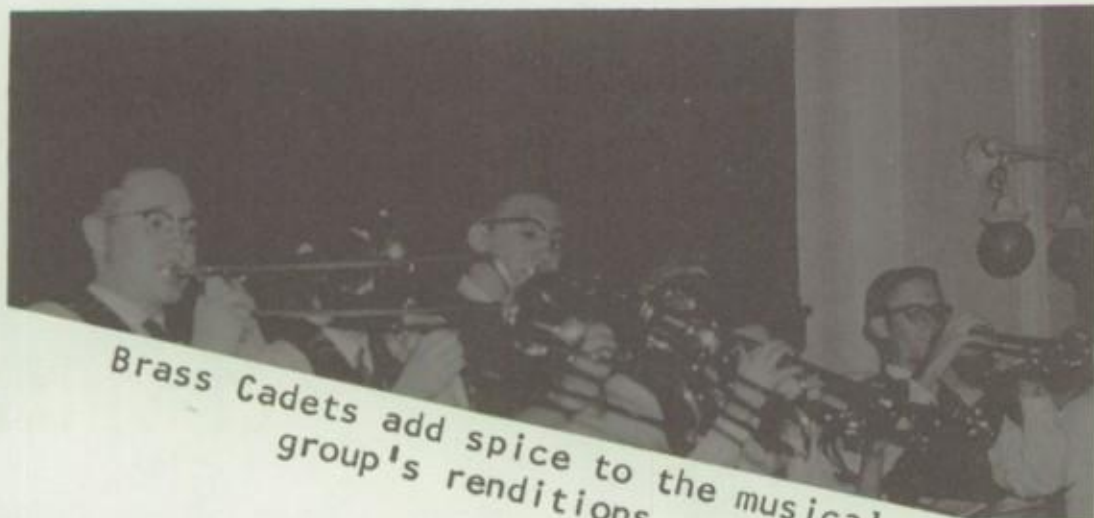

Favorite son from Alabama was never better.

Musical

The Crescendos became Rally favorites at each performance.

Brass Cadets add spice to the musical group's renditions.

Conquest

The Conquest Articles are typed by Marjorie....

lay out, by Jack....

processed and printed by Joe....

The ministries of this organization are presented in a unique and interesting way through the pages of the Conquest. This paper reaches a total of 10,000 friends every three weeks. Unlike many other papers, the articles in the Conquest are teen geared.

Jack Cousins, managing editor, does a tremendous piece of promotion and "interest catching", through his headlines and layouts. The entire club staff is constantly on the alert, looking for new and fresh material that will keep everyone up-to-date with the plans, problems, and program of Youth for Christ.

with assistance given by Rob in the folding....

and addressed by Louise.

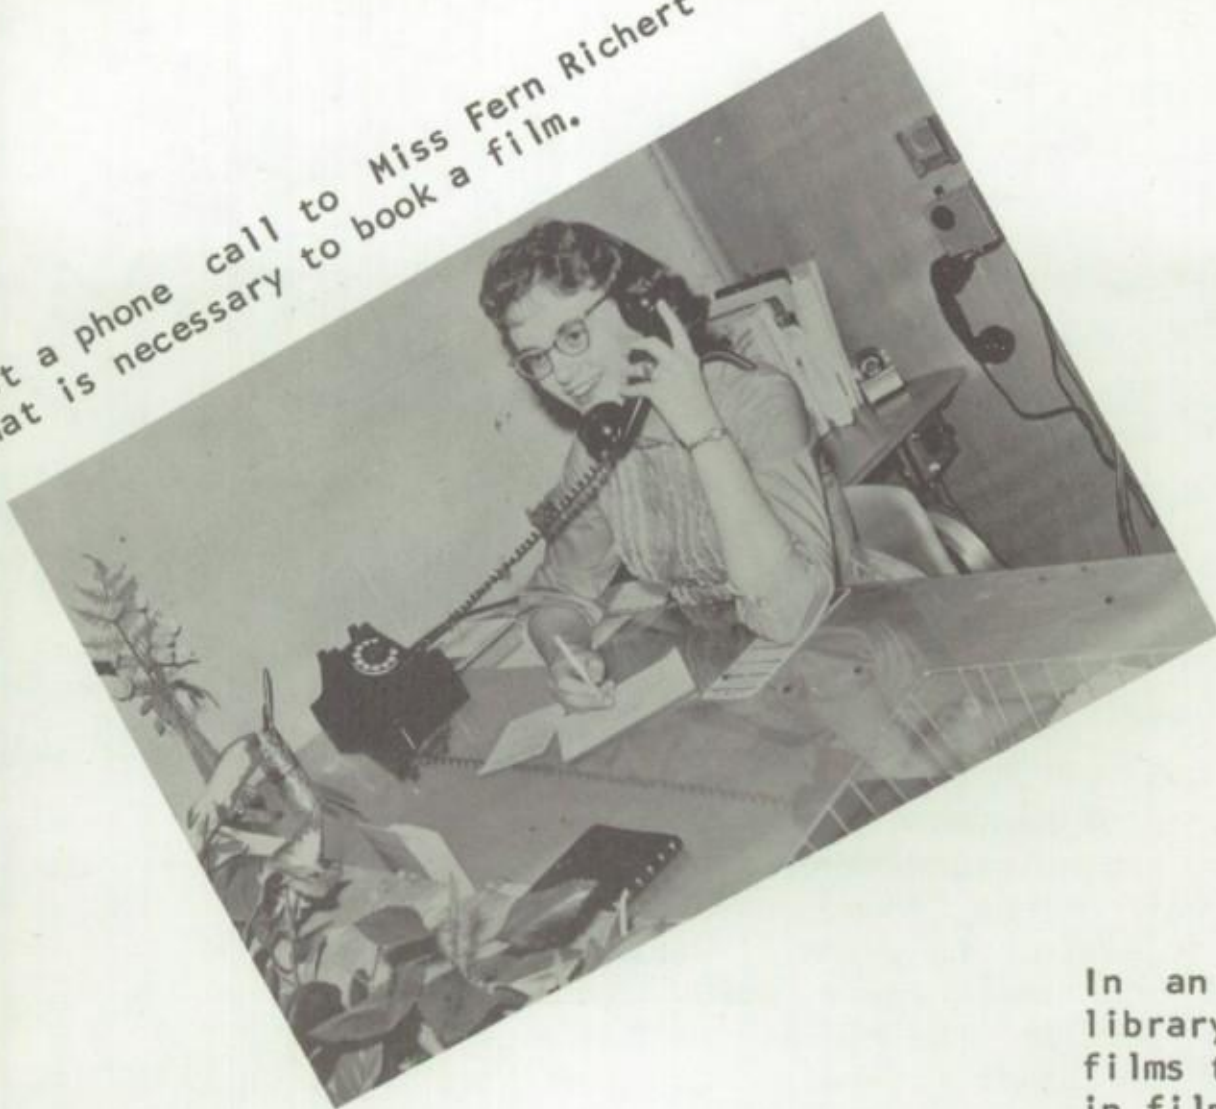

Print

The print shop of Kansas City YFC produces the most unique and outstanding promotion and teen centered publications found anywhere in YFC circles - so state many rally directors all across the country. These words became a recognized fact at the Mid-winter Convention when Youth for Christ International presented the "Promotion Award" to Kansas City. Although the entire staff received the award the person responsible for all the compliments is Joe Jeffers - a man dedicated to the task of excellent printing.

Shop

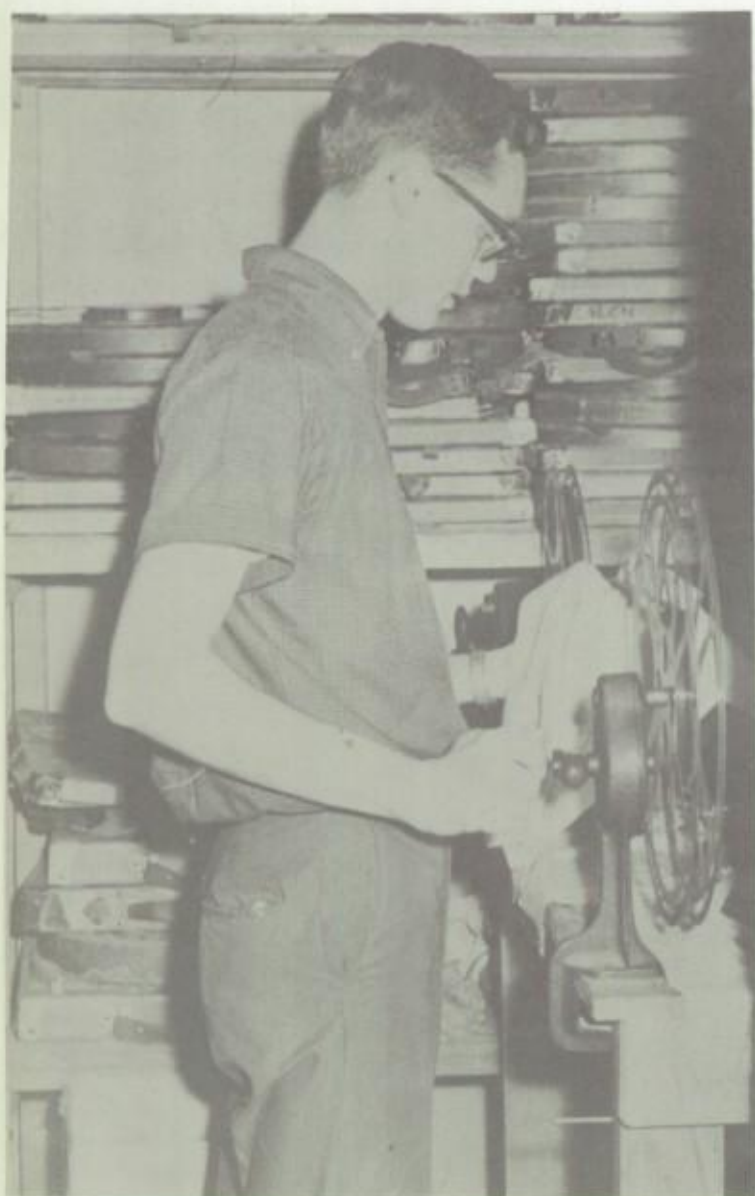

Just a phone call to Miss Fern Richert is all that is necessary to book a film.

Films

In an unprecedented way the film library was increased to over 300 films this year. With this increase in films there was also an increase in demand. Christianity - as lived by teens and adults alike - are presented in a realistic and dynamic way. The titles cover such subjects as church loyalty and the Bible answers to science. Church, clubs rallies, and civic groups all across this ten state area select films to meet specific needs.

Glen Jones does a herculean job of keeping the 300 films in working order.

Follow-Up

A number of years ago, a vital ministry was begun in YFC. The purpose was to assist new converts in living the Christian life. A series of letters and lessons supplement the interest and encouragement given them by a personal counselor. Each new Christian is taught how to have a daily devotional life and is guided in finding a Bible-centered, Gospel-preaching church.

REAL ANSWERS

Radio

Every morning scores of families eat breakfast with Al and Albert....through the medium of radio. Across the city and throughout the two state area, the Youth for Christ Hour is sent into the homes of clubbers and interested friends. From the opening theme to the friendly closing Christ is presented in hopes that the listeners will "start the day right". The ministry of Youth for Christ continues to span into new places because of this radio program.

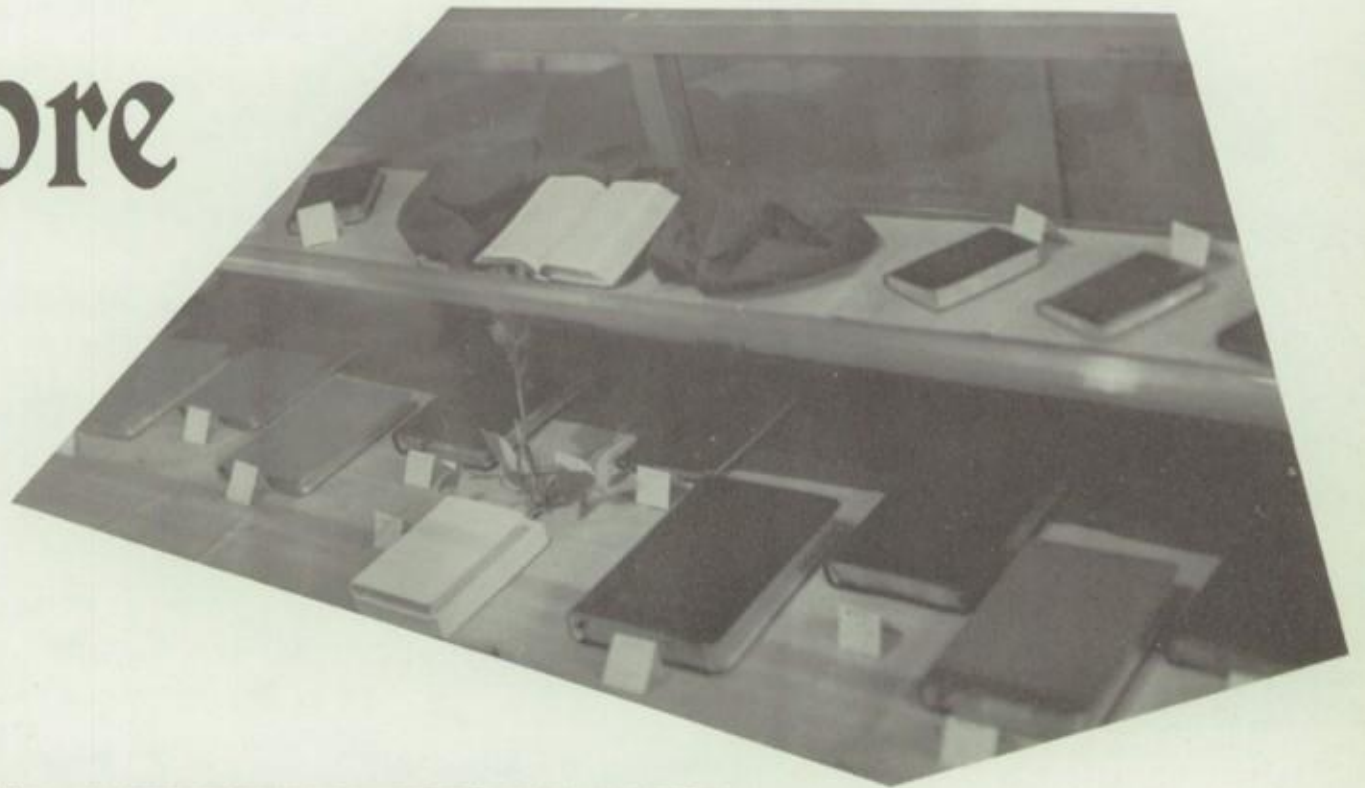

One of the best companions a Christian teen has is his favorite Bible and a good sacred record. These two items are a constant aid in his devotional life. Our bookstore was created for a convenient place to purchase these two favorite items.

The Bible stands as the world's best seller.... especially to the Youth for Christ teenager.

Bookstore

The "wax corner" of the bookstore is often crowded with Hi-fi and Stereo fans who desire the best music has to offer.....even mothers enjoy it.

Conqueror

Standards are always a challenge to teen-agers. The teens who served on the "Conqueror" staff are good examples. Their goal was not only to meet the standard set by previous publications but to better it. Without a doubt they have accomplished their goal. Granted there are mistakes.....but that is the human touch. The remainder of the book is a credit to their determination. This pictorial account has been designed to assist in reliving and remembering the past.
